Accessibility

While the Admiral Pete can accommodate many mobility devices, varying conditions may impact the accessibility of the Water Taxi. For complete information, please contact Argosy at 206-623-1445. Metro buses can accommodate two wheelchairs in designated tie-down areas.

Land connections

In West Seattle, service to Seacrest Park is provided by Route 37, headed towards Downtown Seattle on weekday mornings and returning on weekday afternoons. Limited weekend service.

Midday on weekdays, Route 53 provides service every 60 minutes along Alki and Harbor Avenues to and from West Seattle Junction. No weekend service available.

Once you have reached the downtown waterfront, many attractions are within walking distance. Or, you can ride the colorful Waterfront Streetcar or catch a bus.

- Savor the flavor of Pike Place Market.
- Explore early Seattle in historic Pioneer Square.
- Shop 'til you drop in the heart of downtown Seattle.

Cruise from Downtown Seattle (Pier 54) to Seacrest Park

- Marvel at the best view of the downtown Seattle skyline.
- Bring your gear and fish from Seacrest Park.
- Bask in the sun or picnic on Alki Beach's two miles of sparkling sand.
- Run, ride or skate the Alki and West Marginal Way trails.
- Browse unique shops.
- Visit the century-old Alki Lighthouse and SW Historical Museum.

Just $2 (one way), or buy a Metro Visitor Pass for $5 and get unlimited rides all day on the Water Taxi, Waterfront Streetcar and all Metro buses!

Sail to work.

What a way to start and end the day. Take a deep breath of salt air instead of exhaust fumes, and enjoy the view. Walk to work, hop a bus or take the Waterfront Streetcar to your office.

The Water Taxi is brought to you by King County Metro in cooperation with City of Seattle. Boat service provided by Argosy.

This brochure is available in accessible formats at 206-684-2046 (voice) or 206-684-2029 (TTY).

Parking is extremely limited at Seacrest Park with no special Water Taxi parking available. Catch a bus, walk or bicycle to your boarding location. The two-hour parking stalls in the Seacrest parking lot and 4-hour stalls in the Don Armeni parking lot (just north of Seacrest Park) are monitored closely.
